

In the 10th line of the first section, after the word "plaister," insert the words "stone and wood."

Mr. Schley moved to amend said amendment by adding the words "brick, slate, manganese, bark, hides, leather, groceries."

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

The consideration of the said amendments and bill was postponed, and bill made the order of the day for Monday the 6th of February next.

The President announced the order of the day—being the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act authorising Henry Shafer, George Shafer and Henry I. Shafer, to distribute their estate by lot, passed at December session 1834, chapter 104,

It was read the second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Tidball,

Read the third time by special order, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to appropriate a part of the school fund belonging to Frederick county to the purposes therein mentioned, and for other purposes, was read the second time by special order and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Schley,

Read the third time by special order and passed.

Mr. Tidball presented the petition of James B. Wager of Virginia, for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state,

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

Mr. Purnell from the committee on finance, to which was referred the resolution in favor of James Vane, one of the legal representatives of Lucretia Vane, reported favorably thereon.

It was read the second and by special order the third time and assented to.

The Senate adjourned until Monday morning at ten o'clock.
